

CIGARETTE BUTTS ARE TOXIC TO THE ENVIRONMENT

Cigarette butts are poisonous to children, pets and wildlife.

They are the #1 item found on beaches and roadsides, and a major litter item at parks.

Cigarette butts leach toxic chemicals into the environment including lead, arsenic and nicotine – the same toxic chemicals found in secondhand smoke.

Total Litter Collected in California

